Big fleets of British bombers

possibly 1,000 or more planes, struck at northern France today in relays without any real challenge from the German air force, whose fighters appeared to be avoiding battle.

Canada's Expeditionary Force Sent To Hong Kong Worthy Of All Traditions

By C. R. BLACKBURN
OTTAWA, June 5.—(CP)—Canada's expeditionary force sent to Hong Kong last fall was one of which the Dominion "can and should be proud," Chief Justice Sir Lyman Duff said in his findings as a royal commissioner, tabled in the House of Commons today.

Inclusion of a small number of men not fully trained did handicap the expedition nor was there evidence that the force suffered through lack of certain equipment which failed to leave Canada, the report stated.

The war came upon Canada when the Dominion was unprepared, the chief justice stated.

"In such circumstances, recalling military history, one would perhaps not be greatly surprised to discover that even two years after its commencement some military enterprises had been undertaken which had been ill-conceived or badly managed," he said.

The Hong Kong expedition failed
under neither description.

TABLED BY PREMIER
Prime Minister Mackenzie King
tabled the report in the House of Commons this afternoon. It was the result of a long inquiry conducted by the chief justice.

complaints had been made in the

WASHINGTON, June 5.—

(AP)—President Roosevelt
told today of official information that Japan was using poison gas against China and grimly declared that if the Japanese persisted in this form of warfare, the United States would mete out "retaliation in kind and in full mea-

TEXT OF STATEMENT
The text of the statement follows:

Authoritative reports are reaching this government of the use by Japanese armed forces in various localities of China of poisonous or noxious gases. I desire to make it unmistakably clear that if Japan persists in this inhuman form of warfare against China or any other United States ally, the United States will not hesitate to take such action as may be required by this government

OTTAWA, June 5.—Canadian-U.S. relations passed another millennium today with something out of labor difficulties arising over construction of the Alaska highway.

A formal statement is expected to be made regarding an agreement between the two governments.

Representatives of both countries have accepted the fact, it is believed that differing scales of wages will be paid American and Canadian labor, while the main share of the construction work is being done by Americans.

Augsburg Hero Gets V.C.

Great coat over his arm, Squadron Leader J. D. Nettleton of the R.A.F. has just seen the King, who presented him

stroyed a vital German U-boat engine factory. His reward

May Be Finish Fight

For Possession Of Vital Pacific Island

HONOLULU, June 5.—(AP)—United States defenders, spurred by initial successes, closed battle today with a strong Japanese sea-air force in what may be a finish fight for possession of Midway Island.

Already the island garrison had scored hits on an enemy battleship, an aircraft carrier and possibly other war vessels. Raiding planes were brought down in considerable numbers.

And said Admiral Chester Nimitz,
commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, "our attacks on the enemy are continuing."

This latest assault on the island object, last line of defence before Hawaii itself, began shortly after dawn.

DEFENDERS READY
It found the defence forces keyed
to fighting pitch by long preparation and patient waiting for the months since they first repulsed
such an attack, Dec. 7.

It found them alert and forewarned by the preceding day's raid upon Dutch Harbor, 2,000 miles to the north. It seemed the enemy may have been stepping into a spot too hot to handle.

But it also appeared strongly possible the Japanese did not think this as a hit-and-run affair,
like their five preceding forays
against Midway.

Presence of capital ships in the attacking force and the heavy toll
the defenders were able to exact in the first few hours of the operation suggested the enemy was hand with the sole purpose of taking over the island.

DAMAGE IS LIGHT
And Midway, with the tradition of Midway as its guide, was obviously in no mind to let the issue
go by default.

Admiral Nimitz' communique indicated the Americans' first success was achieved at 10:30 to themselves. He reported that damage to material and installations on the island, 1,140 miles northwest of Hawaii, was minor.

The attack was repulsed by local defenders in which all armed services are represented. The communique said, indicating marine,
sea and air forces were in action.

Rebelling the fast-developing Pacific war, the Midway raid followed by a day late of Japanese planes on Dutch Harbor, Alaska.

The Midway attack was the first
the Japs had aimed at that island since the Nimitz victory. At that time to decorate four naval and marine officers for their bravery to previous raids. At that time he said the ground and air forces used were the best of the Pacific.

Shelling submarines and raiding planes carried on after attacks which reached five March 18, the last one delivered prior to yesterday's heavy assault. Marine corps aviators were decorated by Admiral Nimitz at Midway for absolutely perfect performance.

Midway is the last United States outpost in the Pacific to the northwest of Hawaii. Wake and Ganguan have fallen to the Japanese.

Indian Schools May Be Taken To House Japs

Negotiations are now under way for the taking over by the Dominion government of the industrial school at St. Albert, it was learned from a reliable source Friday.

According to information from
Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, minister of labor, certain of the industrial schools in British Columbia, Alberta and Manitoba are to be used by the Dominion government for quarter-ing some of the Japanese being removed from vital coastal defence zones.

The school at St. Albert is operating religious order of sisters,
and forms part of the pioneer mission.

Intimations have been received at the Indian residential school at Winnipeg that it is to be taken over by the Dominion government.
It was learned, however, no definite decision had been reached for the purpose the school is to be commundered, was available.

DEMANDS ACTION

Hitler Putting Pressure On Finland, Italy For Aid

By WILLIAM DOWNS

LONDON, June 5.—(BUP)— Adolf Hitler was reported in advices from the European continent today to be exerting strong pressure on his Italian and Finnish allies to provide greater support for a big-scale offensive against Russia, including an attempt to take the Murmansk-Leningrad railway.

Stockholm reports said Hitler
surprise visit to Finland
yesterday, ostensibly to felicitate
Finnish Marshal Karl Gustav
Mannerheim on his birthday.

A British official stated that Finns abandon their lukewarm alliance to join in a big assault against Leningrad and Murmansk.

Manneheim, it was reported, is reluctant to send his Finnish troops into any big-scale offensive and would prefer to remain on the defensive. Furthermore, it was reported in Stockholm that the Finnish leader fears a United States declaration of war if Finnish troops join in any attempt to cut the Murmansk-Leningrad railway, the key artery for Allied war supplies
arriving at Murmansk.

A British official stated that Hitler has been having much the same sort of trouble with Italy
that he has experienced with Finland.

Hitler backed up Benito Musso-lini's territorial claims against France, according to military sources in Rome, but in any condition that Italy undertake greater participation on the Russian front.

Gen. Guido Mesini, commander of the Italian expeditionary force on the eastern front, has been recalled to Rome for a short visit and has been ordered to return to his post in the Balkans.

Musolini was said to have insisted that Italy should not be drawn into a big-scale offensive against Russia, but that Italy
should concentrate on the Balkans
and the Middle East.

many years.

He has found large nuggets pre-

Today's War Moves

Japan's widespread naval and aerial activity in the Pacific seems to presage a new campaign eastward against North America instead of a drive against India and the Indian Ocean to join forces with Adolf Hitler in the Middle East.

Until these attacks develop further, it is impossible to say it has been suggested that the Dutch harbor and Midway attacks were
"bait" lures for a privateer tended to inflict damage on the enemy and keep his forces astounded.

Conscription
Consideration
Likely Monday

OTTAWA, June 5.—(CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King held the house of commons yesterday to consider the bill to amend the National Resources Act—Bill 80—Monday or Tuesday.

He was replying to a question from Conservative House Leader Hanson who said: "I don't think we ought to get on with this very important matter immediately. Mr. Hanson said he realized the War Appropriation Act bill had been disposed of and that it was the government's original intention to bring the bill up first."

Mr. King said the situation was in the hands of the House. It was desirable to have the war appropriation bill disposed of before going on with the Mobilization Act amendment.

The amendment will remove from the N.R.M.A. the restriction against compelling men to serve outside Canada and its territorial waters.

He was anxious to proceed with the bill as soon as possible and hoped the house would dispose of the war appropriation bill this week.

$17,000,000 Paid

Alberta Farmers
In Grain Bonuses

CALGARY, June 5.—(CP)—Farm bonuses to Alberta farmers up to May 30 totalled about $17,000,000. E. L. Gray, Minister of Agriculture, said at a meeting of Alberta Wheat Pool delegates yesterday.

Of this amount, $10,000,000 had been paid for wheat acreage reduction, $4,500,000 for prairie farm income, $2,500,000 under the Prairie Farm Assistance Act.

Nearly all payments under the wheat acreage reduction scheme had been paid, Mr. Gray said, but there had been some delays under the other two headings owing to complicating factors. It was hoped these would soon be straightened out.

Time companies are now turning out millions of inner liners which when cemented to the inside of the casing prevent small cuts or ruptures from pinching the tube. It is estimated that these liners will add 10 to 15 per cent to the life of the old casing.

COMMANDOS STRIKE

Swift 'Smash-Grab' Raid

On Coast Confused Huns

WITH THE COMMANDOS OFF THE FRENCH COAST, June 5.—(CP)—British Commando troops closed in on a "smash-and-grab raid" on the French coast early Thursday, Reuters' correspondent said.

Here is the reporter's account:

The commandos storming ashore between Boulogne and Le Touquet just before 3 a.m. had established themselves on the beach before the Germans opened fire. The defenders were so rattled that many of them fled in confusion. Wading craft and cutting their way through barbed wire defenses, some of the raiders reached some distance inland.

Gen. Roberto Piarro, Mexican air chief, in New York to purchase airplane motors, declared his nation is making great strides in military aviation.

from his Balkan allies. All three are seeking to avoid giving military assistance and are offering various excuses.

Even after relations between Washington and Berlin became critical, the Balkan people were extremely friendly to Americans. I never saw one instance of anti-American feeling in Budapest, but I did see many people openly hostile to Germans.

In view of this, it is only natural that one should ask why these countries joined the Axis and why they are so cowardly at least, siding the country which they hate and fear.

The answer is that they agreed at the point of a gun. It was a question of join the Axis or be occupied, and the three governments chose the former at the lesser evil.

When the commandos were flushed by the defenders, German machine-gun posts then fired their fire against assault craft lying offshore, obviously with the aim of preventing the re-embarkation of our troops.

But by this time the commandos had carried out their reconnaissance and gathered information they were there to seek.

The army commander who led the assault up the beach ordered the spy in every store and in every home," he declared.

C.C.F. Will Ask
Salary Ceiling,
Profit Control

OTTAWA, June 5.—(CP)—It was understood last night that the Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation is planning to introduce an amendment to the National Resources Mobilization Act, restricting corporation profits and putting a ceiling on all salaries.

Questioned on reports that the amendment would restrict corporation profits to four per cent of the actual capital invested and fix a $10,000 ceiling on salaries, M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. house leader, said: "Someone has been guessing, but it is a poor guess."

The bill to amend the Mobilization Act now before parliament would give the government a free hand to conscript men for military service overseas and when it decides to take such steps.

The policy frequently urged by the C.C.F. has been that wealth should be redistributed at the same time as manpower and the proposed limitation of profits and salaries would be a step in that direction.

Airman Arrested
For Taking Snap
Brooklyn Bridge

NEW YORK, June 5.—(CP)—Sgt. Cecil M. Palmer, 26, of the Royal New Zealand Air Force, who said he had received his training in Manitoba, was arrested yesterday and questioned by the federal bureau of investigation after he was seen taking a photograph of the Brooklyn bridge. The FBI confiscated the film, but returned Palmer's camera. He was here on leave.

A recent check of garages in the New York City area brought the astonishing report of gasoline sales dropping off as much as 40 to 50 per cent.

While the commandos were on the beaches naval supporting craft encountered two German patrol vessels about a mile off shore. In a short swift engagement one of the patrol boats was left in a sinking condition while the other ran aground, burning from stem to stern and providing a beacon which blazed for hours afterwards.

Both the British and German ships were firing at point-blank range and at one time one of our craft was hit and sent into the German ship from only five yards.

The Coupons Are Coming

The prices and trade board announces that ration cards are to be issued, sugar being the first commodity to be made obtainable only on presentation of this documentary proof that the would-be purchaser is keeping the regulations. Which means that the country is to be put to the expense of operating a cumbersome and costly system of doing out the stipulated amounts to which the ration card entitles the holder.

There is only one reason for this. As a nation we have refused to ration ourselves voluntarily. Now all we are put under a cost from system of allowances, with a policeman standing by to see that nobody tries to get more than his share. This is anything but a compromise to the national willingness to conform to limits which every person knows he cannot exceed without being unfair to his neighbors and adding to the market difficulties of the country and its allies.

There is no danger of a sugar famine if no one uses more than the prescribed amount per week, and so on, for a family of other essential commodities for no one over-uses or hoards. Buying any of these things in excess of the allowance is an offence against the law, is unpatriotic, and in the long run means heavier taxes to pay the cost of enforcing compliance with the rules.

When the coupon system is being put into effect it is to be supposed severe penalties to be levied on those who do not "beat the gate" and lay up surplus quantities in advance. That should be done—and the penalties imposed without fear, favor or apology.

Obey—Or Walk

The city council has passed a bylaw which empowers a magistrate to impound the bicycle of a persistent violator of the traffic regulations. If the penalty seems severe in a case where no person has actually been injured, but a complaint brought on by the action of cyclists themselves, no doubt a small minority in fact. Riding on sidewalks, and at some offence, but not by any means the only one. Mainly because most riders are young, cyclists not infrequently invite injury to themselves and to others even when using the roadways. Imposing fines has not been found altogether effective, because often it is the same person who is the offender who pays the fine. Imposing the wheel will at least make "the punishment fit the crime" to the point that it is the offender who is the one who is punished.

A good deal of sympathy is due to the city bicyclist because many of the unpaid motorists are unfit to be on the roads in the year, while he is forbidden to ride on the sidewalks. He is in the position of having a vehicle which he can only use at certain times or places, and at some danger to himself in the best of conditions. But sympathy for him cannot go so far as to encourage him to break the law. He must be enforced whatever the inconvenience to him.

Seldom a week passes without some person being reported to police as riding on a downtown street because a bicyclist failed to comply with the traffic regulations. It was time to tighten up the law enforcement measures and tell riders they must either obey or walk.

The Libyan Free-For-All

The dispatches from Libya give only a blurred picture of a grand melee in a sandstorm, with tanks and armored troops fighting in confusion which forbids any such thing as a clearly drawn battle-line. At the end of a week and a half the situation appeared to be that Rommel was trying to fight his way back to where he started from, and Allied interceptor forces were trying to prevent him getting there. If this is correct, the campaign has gone into reverse. It was the enemy—not the Allies—that started the drive. Fall to the capture of Tobruk or to reach the Egyptian border, would be a clear defeat for the attacking force; to have to retreat would mark the collapse of the whole enterprise.

General Auchinleck estimates the Axis losses to include 260 tanks, out of perhaps twice that number at the outset. This great fleet of moving fort was the spearhead on which Rommel depended to cut a way through the British position and give him Tobruk. If his losses have been so heavy the drive can hardly be a success for transport difficulties must cut down his supply of replacements.

The Allies, it is to be supposed, have massed plenty of tanks and other kinds of equipment in Egypt and are thus able to make good their own losses. So far as the correspondents can see through the official reports and learn from official reports, there is nothing in the trend of the battle to disturb confidence that it will end in a costly repulse for the enemy. And that area is the damage done to the enemy forces, not the gain or loss of ground, that counts.

The New Combat Zone

In one respect the raids on Dutch Harbor were fortunate. They have put the people living along the Pacific coast, and for hundreds of miles inland, "on their toes." If the enemy had searched the coastline from Alaska to Panama he could not have found a place where this warning could be given with equal effectiveness and less damage.

Instead of a naval and air base in an otherwise unpopulated area, the raiders might have struck at populous cities, where the loss of life and the destruction of property would be many times greater than they could possibly be in the case of the coast. It will be time to jump to the conclusion that this was the only point along the coast which Japanese bombers could reach. We do not know that to be a fact, and the assumption is not only untrue but dangerous. The Japanese are a resourceful people, and no doubt in Japan as elsewhere bombers are being built, both dangerous and longer range. If U. S. planes could throw bombs in central Japan, why could not Japanese planes throw bombs on Vancouver or San Francisco or Edmonton or Spokane?

It was certainly not out of grace on the part of the Tokyo government that it chose Dutch Harbor instead of a great center of civilian population for their first aerial blow at this continent. But neither can it be said they had no choice in the matter. Any day may bring terrible proof to the contrary.

Our defence forces are of course on the alert all the way from Alaska to the Canal. It is for private citizens throughout the country to take all the precautionary measures possible to protect their lives and property.

Heidrich died eight days after he was shot at Prague. Supposedly the cause of death was a bullet wound. But it is likely he was given release by a Nazi surgeon who had reason to hate or fear him. Many men who scoff at religion are moral cowards. In the case of Heidrich, gangsters commonly die at the hands of other gangsters.

The Luftwaffe reprisal for Cologne took the customary course of a raid on a coastal town—this time Canterbury. Not because the British are cowards, but because they are brave. Not because their planes are inferior; they are good. The only imaginable reason for the reprisal is that the planes and pilots are getting scarcer, relatively, and therefore have to be conserved. Hence non-military places are picked out for revenge raids.

Stern Reprisals Could Stop Shooting of Hostages

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

If we reject the political and revolutionary side of this war, it will take us three times as long to win it. We are neglecting that side. We are letting down those allies whose collaboration is absolutely essential to the victory of the "people" in the existing conditions of the occupied areas.

Colonel Nicolai, Heidrich, for his part, was killed in a head-on collision.

Heidrich, even in the Nazi movement as a spy; the industrialist put him into the movement as his man. He ended up as Himmler's assistant—and also as the secret assassin.

Or it might have been the father or brother of one of the students massacred a year ago in the white hall of modern Europe, in the last war and this. No regular has practiced this crime except the Germans. They did it in the last war, but on an infinitely smaller scale.

Belmont Stakes Will Draw Field Of Five Or Six

NEW YORK, June 5.—(AP)—The chances are there'll only be five or six horses going to the post in Saturday's 74th running of the Belmont Stakes, which should make it quite an exclusive taffy-pull for Alab and his Out.

For, while the other three or four will be shooting at that more-than-$50,000 purse, too, they haven't much of a chance on form, with Al's Subby's Chicago being the son of Equipture who won the Kentucky Derby for Mrs. Payne Whitney.

The others probably will include Walter Chrysler's Ramblin' up to now one of the bigger "buds" among the three-year-olds this spring.

Lochnivar, a husky youngster from the barn of James Reisinger of Trenton, N.J., whose chief claim to fame is that he wound up second to Alab in the Withers mile couple of weeks ago.

Longer's Half Crown, an invader from England, and possibly William Ziegler, Jr.'s Wait a Bit, who has done some stretch running occasionally this spring.

Ban Non-Mudders At Suffolk Downs

BOSTON, June 5.—(AP)—Some thoughtless just naturally can't run in mud and so Suffolk Downs stewards, with applause from the legion of 32 bettors, have just ordered the automatic erasing of non-mudders wherever the going becomes heavy at the Boston race course.

The stewards have a list of approximately 100 non-mudders among the more than 1,000 quartered at Suffolk Downs. Whenever overnight conditions cause a change in the track, these horses are scratched automatically in the morning. Should track conditions change during the day, the same automatic scratches rule applies.

Suspend Manager Of Chalky Wright

NEW YORK, June 5.—(AP)—Ralph Walker, manager of Chalky Wright, Los Angeles boxer, who is recognized in New York State as the world featherweight champion, was suspended Thursday by the State Athletic Commission for failure to appear at a commission meeting as he had been ordered.

The commission said Walker would remain suspended at least until he brings in his June 12 fight. At the same time, the commission declared it would take no action on a June 18 title fight at Baltimore between Wright and Harry Jeffra, a former champion, since it did not recognize the bout as a championship affair.

New Regulation Sports Equipment

MONTREAL, June 5.—(CP)—Louis Duce, Maritime Prices and Trade Board administrator of footwear, announced here last night that manufacturers' and wholesaler prices of ski boots, hockey boots and similar winter sports equipment are subject to a new regulation.

The order provides safeguards for retailers whose prices are frozen at the basic price by dividing the "requester" manufacturer and retailers by requiring each to absorb a percentage of the increased cost, none of which may be passed on to the consumer.

Plastic Helmet Saves A Life

MILWAUKEE, June 5.—(AP)—Right is thoroughly sold on plastic helmets worn by Marquette football players. One of them saved his life.

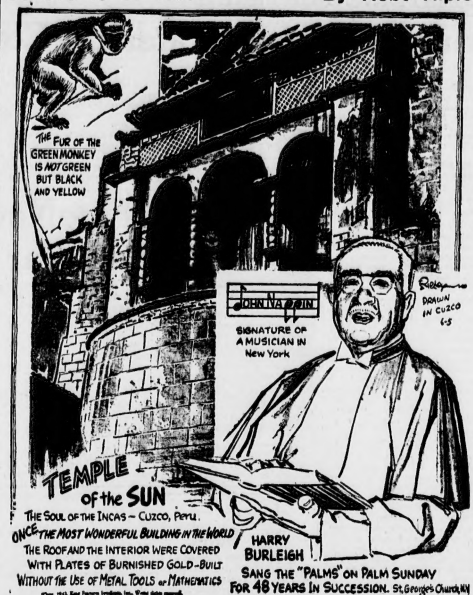

During spring practice, Fullback Tiger was hit on the head by a stray discus. He suffered a painful wound. Doctors said he would have been killed had he not been wearing the headgear.

Jimmy Foxx In Pinch-Hitter Role Mel Ott Establishes New Record For Runs Batted In CHICAGO, June 5.—(CP)—Mel Ott, outfielder manager of New York Giants reached his coveted National League record for runs batted in Thursday, but it was homer by rookie Willard Marshall in the 11th inning that earned New York Giants a 4-3 victory over Chicago Cubs.

A long fly by Ott brought Billy Werber home for the tally in the third. This gave the Giants' home 1,583 runs batted in 17 years, one more than the National League record Rogers Hornsby set in 32 years with St. Louis Cardinals, Dodgers, Cubs and Boston Braves.

Babe Ruth has the American League record with 2,209 runs driven in during 22 years. Mel Ott is likely to be remembered in baseball as the first record breaker on record.

Nobody gives it much thought anymore, but every time the 35-year-old outfielder-manager hits a home run or draws a base on balls he breaks the all-time National League record—which he himself holds, of course.

Lefty Cilly Mellon, pitching six-hit ball, gained his seventh victory but the struggle was tough and got on and in the ninth inning Glen Russell, who had hit a home run all year until the Cubs bought Jimmy Foxx to take over Russell's first base job, came through with his third round-tripper in three days to tie the score.

Foxx made his first National League appearance by pinch-hitting for Slim Hest in the eighth inning and flied to it.

Athletics To Be Hit Again

Connie Mack Faced With Probable Loss Rookie Stars

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—(AP)—Connie Mack, already harder hit by the army draft than any other manager in the major leagues, received the news Thursday that he may lose his two rookie wonder boys.

Catcher Jack Castiglia and shortstop Jack Wallace, even-tempered boys who became sensations with the Athletics last season, both were hearing the call to arms. Manager Mack was frankly woe-stricken.

It will leave quite a hole in the team if they both join up, Mack said. "But it'll be hard on the army if they do as well in the army as they did on me."

Castiglia, who hired out this spring as a menial batting practice catcher and wound up with a .357 batting average, disclosed Wednesday night he had arrangements to join the army and expects to be inducted within a few days.

Wallace, who started out as the awkward laughing stock of the A's and then heard Mack call him "the shoo-dash of the American League" last Thursday his draft board has called him for a new physical examination June 13.

The panging, six-foot 4-inch, 160-lb. youth probably would have been in the service earlier except for a medical defect which left him a 4-4 rating after a physical examination. This time, with previous requirements waived, Mack thinks he has a 30-50 chance of passing.

Wallace was struck on the head by a pitched ball in Wednesday's game with Detroit. Examinations showed, Mack said, that he was not seriously injured.

Yet Called In For Ten To Ace

TORONTO, June 5.—(CP)—Ten to Ace, Harry Gidding's Kings plate winner, is believed to have lived better. Gidding said last night, and a veterinary will look at him after the draft.

Ten to Ace, who won the Prince of Wales stakes at Thorncliffe Wednesday but slowed down during the race, will undergo no further training until he arrives in Winnipeg for the Canadian Derby. He was to have started in the same race at Thorncliffe Saturday but will not enter, it was learned.

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, June 5.—(AP)—When Harry Lawless visited Germany in 1936 as a heavyweight boxer on the Canadian Olympic boxing team he was eliminated in the first round by Dr. Orla of Mexico.

The other night Harry went to Germany as Phil Orla in the Royal Canadian Air Force. They say he got a better deal at Cologne.

Grant McConachie Plans Blaze New Air Trail Over Vital North Route

Noted in Canadian aviation circles as a "first" in many new and daring pioneering ventures, Grant McConachie, general manager of C. P. Airlines Ltd., Western Lines, is about to blaze a new 450-mile airtail across Canada's vitally strategic northern frontier.

Blazes Air Trail

McConachie is scheduled to leave Edmonton Friday or Saturday for the north in a plane piloted by Bud Potter, carrying four oil officials.

At Fort Norman, the plane will head west across the towering peaks of the Rockies on a route never before flown, to Whitehorse, Yukon Territory.

On this first flight over this wild terrain, the McConachie party will be seeking the "soft spots" of mountain passes.

The pioneer flight is successful if it is likely the route will become one for regular plane passenger and transport service between the two points, that have taken on great importance as a result of the struggle against the Axis powers in the Pacific.

Although still a very young man, Mr. McConachie has the distinction of having been the first in the field of western aviation with many new departures in the way of equipment and ideas.

An aerial bridge to Asia, by way of the Canadian north, is the plan, Whitehorse and Alaska, was one of his early dreams. Later he conceived the aerial route that may well become a lifeline of the skies across the northern frontier.

Grant McConachie, general manager of C. P. Airlines, Western Lines, will pioneer a new aerial route between Fort Norman and Whitehorse. The new route will be of great strategic importance at the present time.

Great War Veteran Dies City Hospital

Victim of the last war, Capt. David Lawson Gard, M.C. (1919-1921), died in a city hospital Thursday. He was a member of the Canadian Corps (Australians) having served overseas with the 4th Battalion. He is survived by his wife and two sisters in Scotland.

Rev. J. Macbride Miller will officiate at the funeral services to be held at Foster and McGraw's funeral chapel, Monday at 2:00 p.m. Burial will be in the Soldiers' Plot of the Edmonton cemetery.

Charge Dismissed

An argument over the removal of a tenant's possessions from a rooming house was aired in city police court Friday morning, and resulted in the landlord being found guilty of the charge. A charge of assault was dismissed.

The landlord, Victor Velze, 8041 106th avenue, was fined $10 and costs, with an option of 14 days in jail, for the theft of three paint brushes, a crowbar, and a baseball bat, which was proven in court to be the property of Frank Turner, a tenant.

Power Poles Break

Two powerline poles at 10th avenue and 97 street were broken off by a storm on Thursday immediately after a street car was passed the poles. The poles fell upon the wires and did not hinder the transmission of power.

Pury Returns Open Verdict Highway Death

An open verdict was returned by a coroner's jury Thursday at an inquest into the death of Rev. William Danahue, who died in the Lamont hospital nine days after an automobile accident on the Jasper highway, on May 13.

The jury did however mention the name of William Danahue as the driver of the car at the time of the accident. Death was caused by a penetrating wound above the left eyebrow that resulted in the inflammation of the brain, the verdict stated. It stated further that the wound was caused as the result of an accident caused by a car driven by William Danahue, "at an excessive rate of speed."

The inquest was held at the Foster and McGraw Funeral home with Dr. E. A. Braithwaite, provincial coroner presiding.

Members of the jury and other members were: Duncan, John C. Hay, George W. Blair, Francis Taylor and B. J. Talbot.

Dr. John Margregor, associate professor of pathology at the University of Alberta, described the condition of the post-mortem he conducted on May 23, and a truck driver who had passed the death a few seconds before the accident testified that the car was travelling at about "30 miles an hour."

Danahue and Shumewick were proceeding west along the Jasper highway and upon entering the intersection at the "T" junction, the evidence revealed that the car struck a sign post along the right side of the road, crashed into the ditch across the intersection.

The force of the impact threw Shumewick against the dashboard or windshield causing the head injuries. Danahue suffered deep cuts to the face and right forearm as well as a badly crushed ankle and fractured ribs.

Mrs. R. C. Marshall
Speaks at Annual Meeting in East

MONTREAL, June 4.—Educational work of the I.O.D.E. in Alberta covers many phases of the problem of raising the standard of education among the young people of our province. Mrs. R. C. Marshall, of Edmonton, provincial president, during the annual meeting of the order, being held here this week.

"Our personnel work in education is being maintained, and even increased," Mrs. Marshall said. "Last year bursaries were doubled. We are aware of the 'inflation' factor in preparing the young mind now to meet the responsibilities of our time, and we stress the educational work as we look ahead to the post-war period of reconstruction."

Referring to camp library projects of the order in Alberta, Mrs. Marshall explained that I.O.D.E. members emphasized the importance of making reading material available to men and women in the services and prisoners of war. "We collect and send out large quantities of magazines and books, some of which are either entirely new or almost as fresh-appearing as when they came from the publishers," Mrs. Marshall said.

BOOKS FOR ACTIVE SERVICE

In speaking of the significance of the new camp libraries, Mrs. Marshall said that the project will be established immediately following the recommendation passed at the meeting this week. Mrs. Marshall stated that the new fund will centralize the order's efforts of placing reading material at the disposal of the service camps in Canada, as well as on ships of the navy and merchant navy, explaining that the national office of the order could purchase books at advantageous prices. "This will not supersede our work established since war commenced, of making available all the books we can get through the channels we have been using."

Wedding Held At "Y" Hostess House On Opening Day

A resolution was introduced into the I.O.D.E. convention in Montreal (Thursday) calling for strict governmental supervision over all Japanese now in Canada. The resolution asks that they be prohibited from obtaining private employment, from purchasing property, and from establishing themselves.

Some speakers said they feared Japanese transferred from the west coast to other provinces would engage in sabotage.

Jap Zero Fighter Superior To U.S. Planes In Australia

Large-Scale Air Attacks Are Believed Improbable Without Greater Strength

Ray Maley, the Sydney Morning Herald's war correspondent, here relates the conclusions he has reached on the military situation in the area north of Australia after observing four months of air war in that theatre.—EDITOR.

By RAY MALEY

SOMEWHERE IN AUSTRALIA, June 5.—(AAP)—The lesson emerging from four months of aerial warfare in the areas north of Australia is that under prevailing conditions the most modern American fighter aircraft available in Australia have been tried and found wanting in some minor particulars in combat with Japanese Zeros.

Your Baby And Mine

It seems almost old-fashioned to talk about colic. One seldom hears the word any more. That fact in itself ought to be more reassuring to our modern methods of feeding than almost anything else one could say. Modern colic is just plain hunger, nothing more, and obviously our modern babies are seldom hungry. But if their diets are supervised by good pediatricians.

Mr. T. R. B. said her baby had colic the first night home from the hospital and continued that for three weeks. During this time she gave him soda and poppermint for it. All the time the baby was being nursed and had gained two pounds.

At one month she persuaded the doctor to let her try a formula and the first night the baby slept all night and seemed to improve immediately. In about two weeks he became worse again and when the formula was strengthened he improved.

"Now, at 11 weeks he weighs more than 12 pounds and is beginning to cut two teeth," she writes. "Physically, he seems very advanced. Almost from birth he has been a bit overfed and held up his head. He can sit now with very little support and holds his head erect for long periods. He seems like a much older child."

"He is supposed to get 4 to 6 ounces of formula at a feeding, once every 3 to 4 hours, 8 to 10 ounces of water and a tablespoon of fruit. But he is uncomfortable when he is fed. He is uncomfortable when he is fed. He is uncomfortable when he is fed."

"I think so. He is a fine 3-month-old weight. His development is perfect. It is possible that during his first three weeks he was overfed. He is overfed, as the two-pound gain would indicate. This was real colic. But you were able to stick it out for a while he would have accommodated himself to the colic feeding, or your breast supply would have become stabilized to meet baby's needs. This is about all there is to the idea that a baby has 'colic'."

When it lays beyond this period of mutual accommodation it is more often due to hunger and the baby recovers when his diet improves. Your present formula is so scanty even in amount and size you'd like to use evaporated milk, try about 10 to 11 ounces of this with enough water to make a 28 ounce formula and the present problem will disappear. Give the baby all he wants of this.

80 Facing Trial For Nazi Riots

NASSAU, Bahamas, June 5.

(CP)—Eighty persons will be tried for participating in widespread riots that cost three lives and extensive property damage here Monday, government authorities disclosed yesterday.

The charges to be placed against the men, all understood to be natives, were not announced.

The riots started after unskilled laborers on a big American project started a demonstration against their poor shillings (10 cents) a day wage.

The Duke of Windsor, who hurried back from Washington to occupy his post as Governor, already had started negotiations in connection with the wage rate, which was fixed by agreement of the British and United States governments.

About 1500 workers on the American project returned to work yesterday.
